

AfrAsia Golf Masters 2011, a prestigious competition to be held at Anahita

World renowned players confirmed to date: Grégory Havret, Nicolas Colsaerts, Hennie Otto, Jean-Baptiste Gonnet, Julien Clement, Christian Cévaër, Alexander Levy, Romain Wattel, Victor Dubuisson and Bernd Wiesberger

AfrAsia Bank Limited announced its sponsorship of the AfrAsia Golf Masters 2011, a unique and prestigious golf event which will be held at Four Seasons Golf Club-Mauritius at Anahita, from 13th to 17th December 2011. The tournament, which also appears on the calendar of the Fédération Française de Golf, is worth total prize money at €75,000. Other major sponsors of the event are Anahita, Air Mauritius, Canal Sat Maurice, Four Seasons Golf Club and the MTPA.

The AfrAsia Golf Masters is the professional golf tournament organized by Canal+ Events which will bring together the 20 best golf players of the Allianz Golf Tour (French Professional Circuit) and 10 specially invited guest players of the European Tour. The game is played on stroke play (each shot counts). On 15th and 16th December, an original pairing (one professional and one amateur) is established in an Alliance format. Moreover the competition is preceded by two PRO-AMs, where professionals and amateurs will be mixed in an opening round scheduled on the 13th & 14th. The Pro tournament will be held on Saturday 17th December 2011 and will be opened to the public.

The organizers are expecting golfers from Mauritius & abroad for the competition including some world renowned PROs who have already confirmed their presence. They are:

- Julien Clement
- Grégory Havret
- Nicolas Colsaerts
- Hennie Otto
- Jean-Baptiste Gonnet
- Christian Cévaër

- Alexander Levy
- Victor Dubuisson
- Romain Wattel
- Bernd Wiesberger

“We are proud to be partnering once again with this prestigious event in collaboration with CANAL+ EVENTS and other sponsors. We are convinced that AfrAsia Golf Masters will be another brilliant experience with so many PROs around,” remarked James Benoit, Chief Executive Officer of AfrAsia Bank Limited.

Nicolas Colsaerts, Winner of the Mauritius Golf Masters 2010:

“It will be a real pleasure to be in Mauritius again for the AfrAsia Golf Masters. I enjoy the place and I love the golf course. I expect the game be very competitive this year and this should provide the right impetus before my next competition in South Africa.”

Grégory Havret, French professional golfer :

« J’avais promis de jouer à nouveau cette année un tournoi de l’Allianz Golf Tour. Je tiendrai ma promesse et serai présent a l’AfrAsia Golf Masters, à la mi-décembre, pour ce tournoi qui va permettre aux 20 meilleurs joueurs de l’AGT (Allianz Golf Tour) de se mesurer à des joueurs invités. Il me tarde d’y être. Parce- que ce sera véritablement une semaine de fête. Et parce-que je pourrai aussi mettre des visages sur des noms de jeunes joueurs dont je ne connais pour l’instant que les résultats. J’aimerais me rendre plus souvent sur les épreuves, mais la densité du calendrier du tour européen m’en empêche. J’ai envie de les voir jouer, de parler avec eux, de connaître leur manière de voir les choses. Je suis pressé de rencontrer ceux qui, un jour, prendront ma place, pour que nous fêtions ensemble cette fin d’année ».

Designed by Ernie Els, the Four Seasons Golf Club, Mauritius at Anahita, is a 7,440-yard, 18-hole, par-72 championship course with large fairways and five sets of tees. Six stunning oceanfront holes culminate in a final shot that is among the most spectacular in the world. Built to USGA standards, it is the first of its kind in Mauritius. Carefully woven into the tropical sanctuary, the course is set against lush mountains and fringed by the vast crystal-clear lagoon.

Ernie Els, Anahita championship golf course designer and world renowned South African golfer since the mid-1990s

« Anahita was an exciting project to be involved with right from very start and since the golf course opened we've been extremely gratified by the reactions from golfers of all standards, including the professionals who played here in last year's Mauritius Golf Masters. I'm sorry I can't be there this year to play the Afrasia Golf Masters at Anahita but I'm sure it's going to be a great week. One of the strengths of this golf course is we were able to maximise the visual impact of the surrounding scenery, but at the same time preserve the coastline's natural beauty. The hole-routings move in and out of the trees, along the water, and back, giving players great variety and magnificent views of the ocean. You'll love it. Another of the features that makes this course stand out are some of the interesting design touches that we've been able to integrate into the layout; such as the use of existing dry-stone walls as strategic hazards, links-style burns and classic, grassdowned bunkers which reveal just a sliver of sand from the player's-eye view. We're proud of Anahita. Play well and enjoy the course! »

Marc Amelot, Director of Four Seasons Golf Club, added: "the competition is really a highlight in the golf calendar, not only as a reward for an entire year of competition but also a golden opportunity for promising players of the Allianz Golf Tour to rub shoulders and exchange ideas with experienced professionals from the European Tour."

For registration purposes, golfers will be required to log on the website <http://www.afraziagolfmasters.com/> and make online booking.
